BEETAY HUEY DIN

A nostalgic journey in to the golden era of Hindi Cinema and Music

Travel through life of Hindi cinema from 1945 to 1968. The journey visits landmarks like K. L. Saigal, Bimal Roy, V. Shantaram, and Guru Dutt. En route meet the stylish Dev Anand, tragedy king Dilip Kumar, showman Raj Kapoor, the beautiful Madhubala, the classy Meena Kumari, and yahoo Shammi Kapoor, to name a few. Experience a collage of performances on screen and stage. Aided by mega screen audio visuals, the performers on stage blend with the celluloid, making music come alive on stage through the medium of music, pictures and movie clips. Witness a third dimension to the celluloid screen, restore links with our past, get nostalgic and go back to our roots, to those moments which we all want to relive.
