Subject: Information about upcoming events

Dear Members,

We would like to thank you and your family for celebrating the Saraswati Puja with us last month. It is your participation and enthusiasm that has contributed to the overall success of the Saraswati Puja this year. We would like to see BCS grow and reach greater heights. Therefore, through this e-mail we would like to request all our members to send us name and contact information (telephone # and e-mail address) of potential members who are new to Cleveland and its surrounding areas and would like to join BCS. Please send names and contact information to Supriyo Pyne (email: skpyne@yahoo.com).

With Saraswati Puja behind us, we are gearing up for a chain of activities starting April.

1) Baishakhi Celebration: Evening of April 11, 2009 at the Shiva Vishnu Temple.

There will be performances from members of various Indian communities and your presence will be highly appreciated.

2) Spring Festival 2010 (Indoor): April 24, 2010 from 10 am to 6 pm at the ICC building.

Events: Table Tennis, Carom, Sonar Bouthan, Antakshari, Musical Chair competition and a lot of Children's activities. Families or Members if interested in participating or volunteering or setting up food-stall in the Spring Fest event, please contact Debabrata Ghosh (email: ghoshdebabrata@hotmail.com).

3) Rabindra Nazrul Jayanti: May 15, 2010.

Please note that date for Rabindra Nazrul Jayanti program has been changed from the original scheduled date. Details will follow for this program.

We look forward to seeing you at these events. Thank you.

Sincerely,

BCS Executive Committee Members, 2010
