

Raghab Chatterjee

Inheriting the artistic talent of his mother, Shila Chatterjee, an accomplished classical music artist, Raghab started his musical journey under the supervision of his mother. Then came the association with great gurus like Dr. Amiya Ranjan Banerjee, Pt. Ajoy Chakraborty, and finally Ustad Rashid Khan.

He has innumerable albums to his credit, to name a few are:

Bengali- Bhorer Alo, Tumi nei bole, Sharodia, Aat Range, Bhubanamohini, Shamiana, Nameplate, Srot.

Hindi- Rishtaa, Bandish Fusion, Raga Rocks.

He sang for many famous Indian films, to name a few are:

Bengali- Patal Ghor, Bandhan, Suvodristi, Bor Asbe Ekhuni, Chaturango.

Hindi- Devdas, Parinita, Tere Naam, Raincoat.

Raghab also sang for a lot of commercial TV serials and films.

He worked with the famous music directors in both Kolkata and Mumbai- Bappi Lahiri, Ismail Darbar, Monty Sharma, Sajid Wajid, Chiradip, Ram Sampat, Debajyoti, Santanu Moitra, Pritam Chakraborty, and many others.

In recognition for his contribution to Indian music he received many awards and accolades. Some of those awards are: National Scholarship, ITC/SRA Scholarship, R D Burman award, Uttam Kumar award, Kalakar award, HMV Golden talent award.